Memorize/Reflect:

"When he (Jesus) saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36)

Prayer Direction: Ask God to help you see people the way He does, with compassion and grace. Pray for a heart that loves people no matter where they come from or their status in the eyes of the world.

"Live It!" Challenge - Slow Down and Notice: Pick a very public place that you find yourself on a regular basis. It can be at school, work, a mall, a club...anywhere there is a regular flow of people. Find a place you can sit or stand without really standing out. Take ten to fifteen minutes to simply watch people pass by. Pray silently for these people. Ask God to help you see them as He does. Pray for each person to know the love and friendship of Jesus, if they have never met Him before.
