Memorize/Reflect:

"I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." (Matthew 5:44)

Prayer Direction: Confess to God that you have been harsh and unloving with both neighbors and those who have wronged you. Ask God to fill you with His Spirit in a way that will empower you to extend love to those who love you, and even to those who see you as an enemy. Pray for an ability to remember how God loved you when you were living in rebellion to Him and ask for power to love those who are unkind to you...so that people will see that Jesus is alive!

"Live It!" Challenge - A Bold Kind of Prayer: Identify one person who has hurt you or treated you unfairly. Commit to pray for this person every day for the coming week. Ask God to draw near them, show His love, and draw them close to Jesus.

NOTES

Take It Up a Notch How to Move From Hatred to Love

The Main Dish... Love your _____.

What does it mean to love my _____?

How should I _____ for those who _____ me?

What does it mean to be a _____?

We _____ more like Him with _____!

Have you noticed that kids can look like their parents over time (for better or for worse)...

What is our Father like? He _____ and mercy freely and _____ His _____ on all people! Everyone is welcome, loved, and invited (sadly, not all come).

We take it up a notch when we become who God has designed and purposed us to be ("perfect") and grow into maturity in Christ.

Key Passages: Matthew 5
