Memorize/Reflect: “My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” (John 14:2-3)

Prayer Direction: Ask God to help you grow in friendship with Him now as a foretaste of what you will get to experience in heaven. Thank God for Christians you love who have already gone to be with Jesus. Give Him praise that you will see them again and that you will get to enjoy them and get to know them even better.

“Live It!” Challenge: Dare to Dream – Think about all the Christians you have known through your life and heard about (read about) in the Bible, in sermons, through all history. Now, imagine you have no time constraints. Who would you want to talk to, learn from, and get to know better? Thank God that you will have lots of time, endless time, to enjoy these relationships and friendships in heaven!
