Memorize/Reflect: "I commend the enjoyment of life..."
(Ecclesiastes 8:15)

Prayer Direction: Thank God for the many ways he has blessed you through the years. Ask God to help you notice and enjoy the good gifts He has placed in your life. Pray for God to use you to bring joy and blessing to other people. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you self-control to keep good gifts from becoming destructive in your life.

"Live It!" Challenge: Take a look at your life. Is pleasure a positive force for good, or has it been a destructive temptation? Have you ever considered that pure pleasure can be a true friend rather than a cunning enemy? Reflect on what it means that God made us so capable of experiencing so many distinct and powerful pleasures, and consider what that tells us about the God who created us. Ask God to help you begin using pleasure as a powerful force for spiritual, relational, and physical well-being in your life.
