Memorize/Reflect: “My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ must not show favoritism.”
(James 2:1)

Prayer Direction: Thank God for loving you just as you are and praise Him for teaching you how to follow Him in ways that make you more who He wants you to be. Pray for an awareness of any favoritism or discrimination that might be in your heart and life. Then, ask God to help you treat all people with the same love Jesus would extend to them.

“Live It!” Challenge: Heart Check - As you walk through the coming week, watch your attitudes, actions, and motives. Identify any places you show discrimination toward another person. How do you tend to favor one person and not another? If this is ungodly favoritism, confess it and ask God to help you see people as He does, with love and care.
