Memorize/Reflect: “But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.” (James 3:17)

Prayer Direction: Thank God for the ability you have to communicate to others and praise Him. Confess there are times when your words have hurt and discouraged others. Pray for an awareness of any ways and words you are currently communicating to others that are not reflective of God’s wisdom. Then, ask God to help you correct those practices and replace them with words that would be pleasing to Him and reflect His wisdom.

“Live It!” Challenge: Heart/Word Check - As you walk through the coming week, identify areas in your life and relationships that are potentially volatile or challenging. When communicating in these situations, seek to apply the Faith in Action model for communication (Search Your Heart, Seek Heavenly Wisdom, Speak Wise Words) and evaluate the response of others and the outcome of the communication.
