Memorize/Reflect: For no matter how many promises God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen” is spoken by us to the glory of God. (2 Corinthians 1:20)

Prayer Direction: Thank God for His faithfulness and fulfillment of His promises. Praise His name and His sovereignty among the nations and throughout all generations. Ask God to show you in a powerful way this week the reality and presence of Jesus Christ as His promise for you to give you hope, peace, and strength during all times of your life. Thank Him for the gift of Jesus that has guaranteed our salvation and eternal life in His presence.

“Live It!” Challenge: Are you struggling in your understanding of God’s faithfulness and love for you because of your past or present circumstances? Are you fully embracing His promise of Jesus and the promises of Jesus to give you hope for eternal life, peace in the midst of troubling times, and strength in times of adversity and weakness? Ask Jesus to provide you a fresh outpouring of His Spirit to allow you to fully live in the confidence of His promises.
