Memorize/Reflect: God sets the lonely in families, he leads out the prisoners with singing but the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land (Psalm 68:6)

Prayer Direction: Praise God for the way he adopted you into his family as your Heavenly Father, for the intimacy you have with him in the power of his Spirit, and for the ways he's restoring you from the destructive impacts of sin in your life and injustice in your world. Ask God to reveal his heartbeat for justice to you, and look prayerfully for areas of brokenness he might want to reveal to you in your neighborhood, our nation, and the world. Ask God, "Break my heart with the things that break yours," and pray for concrete ways, whether small or large, you might be able to participate in his heartbeat of justice for bringing healing and restoration to our broken world.

"Live It!" Challenge - Dare to Ask – During the coming weeks, ask three or four Christians if there is a particular "justice issue" that has gripped their heart over the years. This could be local or international, it could be things like foster care, human trafficking, or the global HIV+ epidemic. Ask what has stood out to them in particular about this issue? Why is it so devastating? What is it like for a person impacted by it? And in an ideal world, what would it look like for the Church together on a broad scale to be a witness to God's love and heart for justice to people affected by this issue?
